

Freebies – British charts and booklets

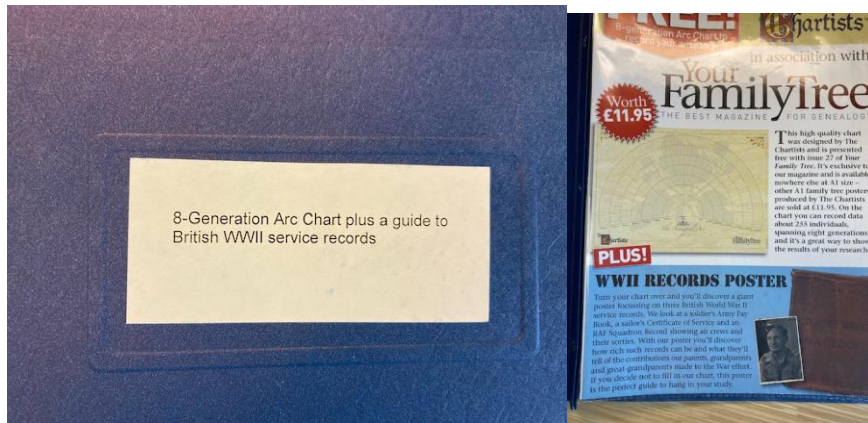

The SGC Branch has several items that were donated that don't fit into our regular collection. They are ideal for those doing genealogy research and family trees.

These items – charts and booklets are free to a good home.

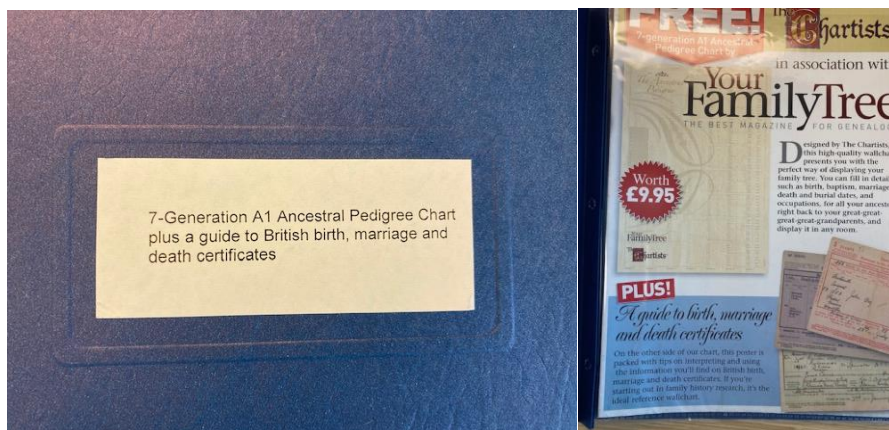

If you are interested in one or more of these items, please send an email to sgclibrarianarchivist@gmail.com with the name of the item(s) in the subject line. Note that you will need to pick up your item(s).

Items needing a home

1. 8-Generation Arc Chart plus a guide to British WWII service records

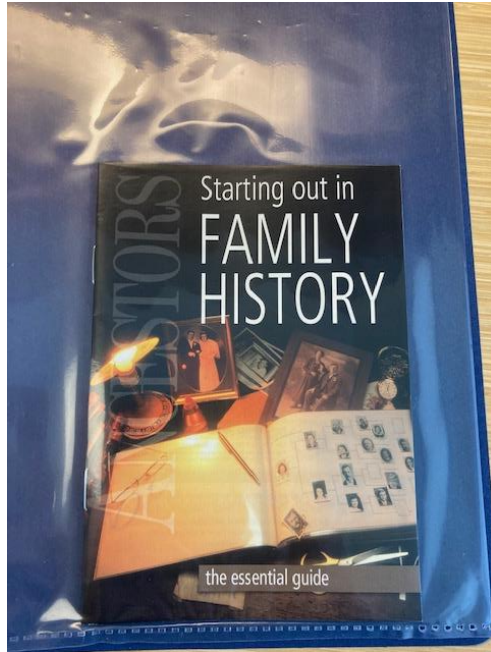

2. 7- Generation A1 Ancestral Pedigree Chart plus a guide to British Birth, Marriage and Death Certificates

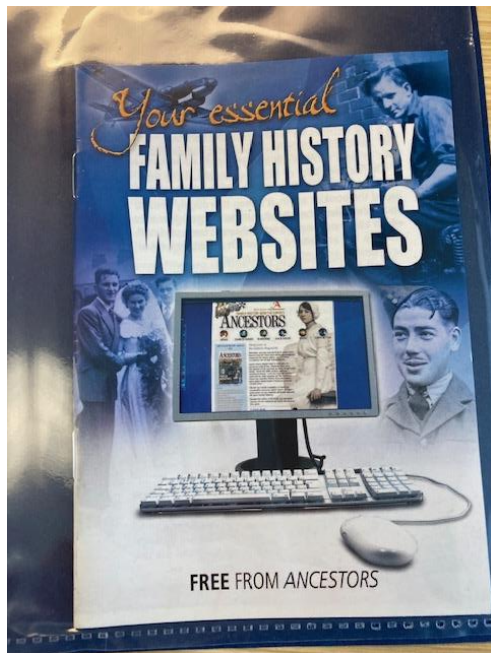

Freebies – British charts and booklets

3. Starting out in Family History – small booklet

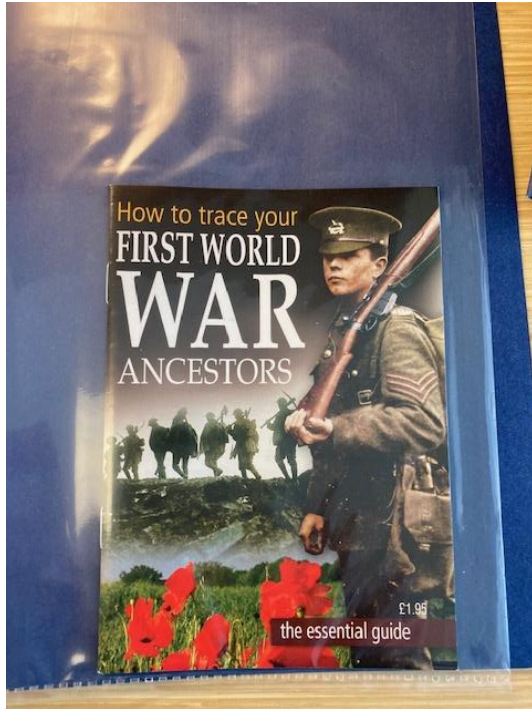

4. Your Essential Family History Websites – small booklet

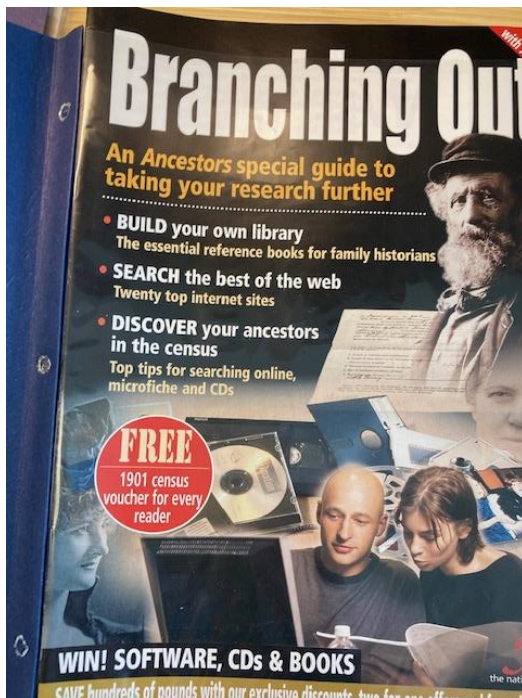

Freebies – British charts and booklets

5. How to Trace your First World War Ancestors – small booklet

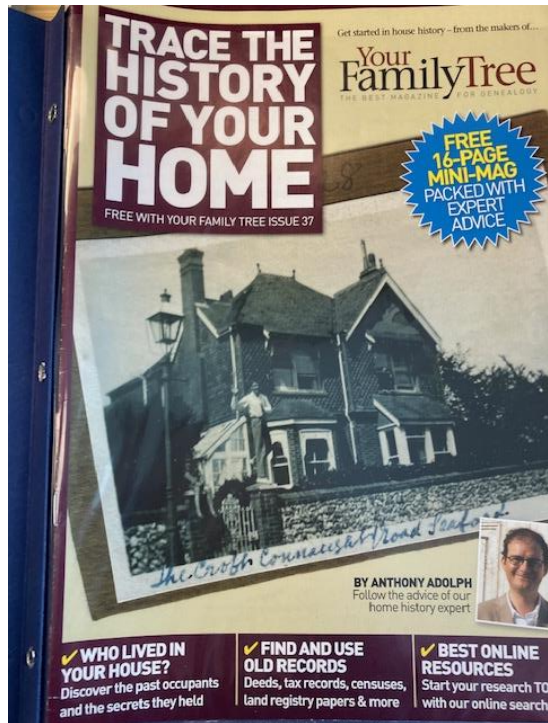

6. Branching out – An Ancestors special guide to taking your research further - booklet

Freebies – British charts and booklets

7. Trace the History of your home - booklet

8. Boy Soldiers of the Great War – small abridged book. Four individual stories as listed.

